Queen Victoria Is Dying.

Peaceful Ending of a Worthy Life

AND OF A LONG AND GLORIOUS REIGN.

Winning, Jan. 21. 00.
London, Jan. 20.—Queen Victoria is slowly passing away and her death is expected at any moment. She lies at Osborne House, Isle of Wight in a room which has been specially prepared for her. The following official bulletin indicates the gravity of her condition.
Jan. 20.—The Queen passed a somewhat restless night and her symptoms continue to cause anxiety.
Jan. 21.—There are grave reasons to believe that Her Majesty's condition is critical.
Jan. 21.—It is learned that a very serious change has occurred in the condition of the Queen, and the worst is feared before morning.

Judge Ross, of Toronto, died on Saturday.
The attorney-general of Ontario, is seriously ill.
Senator Ogilvie has resigned owing to ill health.

A very serious case visited the business district of Elgin, Man.

Eleven members of the crew of the British steamer Modgryvan, which was wrecked in the channel, were drowned.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—The expectation here is that the British government will return the amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty with amendments of its own, and it is expected that these British amendments will be acceptable to the United States senate. Whether or not this expectation is based on advice from Mr. Choate or communications from Lord Pauncefote, it is not possible to determine. The Nicaragua treaty was never ratified in the public mind here as an issue of overwhelming importance. Today's developments confirm the forecasts of the associated press correspondent yesterday and it is likely the cabinet will hold the question under consideration during several meetings. In the meantime the chief desire of Englishmen appears to be for an amicable settlement.

The War.

Supply Train Captured by Boers.

Strathcona Bailed for Home Yesterday.

Pretoria, Jan. 19.—The Boers have captured a supply train with mining materials between Druggerspruit and Balmoral. The passengers were robbed of everything.

Cape Town, Jan. 20.—The British steamer Lake Erie sailed for Canada today carrying 400 of the Strathcona Horse.

—There are now five fur buyers on the Edmonton market. T. H. Burns for Jos. Ullman, of St. Paul; W. B. Seemett, for Herskowitz & Roth, of New York; the H. B. Co., McDougall & Seemett, and Ross Bros. There is a larger amount of fur offering this season than last at this time.

—Delightful weather has been provided for the last two weeks. So far there have been only two cold snaps this winter and they lasted less than a week. The weather generally has been mild and most delightful. Just enough snow to make sleighing and just enough frost to keep the ice in condition for skating and curling.

—The funeral of the late James Rankin took place on Saturday to the Edmonton cemetery. The deceased was in the employ of the H. B. Co., and came in from Lac la Poudre on Sunday, the 13th. On Thursday he was taken ill, and died on Friday morning. He was a son of Colin Rankin, H. B. factor at Mattawa, Ont. The funeral arrangements were made by the H. B. Co.

—A meeting of the members of the public reading room was held Thursday night in the reading room. It was decided to keep the room open from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m. and open informally to-night at 8 p. m. —S. Chivers Wilson, formerly of Edmonton, but now in the Northwest government, will arrive on to-night's train.

—The Misses Lickhart were thrown from the cutter in which they were driving yesterday, fortunately without injury.

—There will be a full practice of the White Troubadours to-night in the normal school. Bills for the performance will be out to-morrow.

—A special service appropriate to the return of the volunteers from South Africa will be held in the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 27th inst.

—The advisability of holding a banquet during the week of the Old Timers ball, February 14th, is being considered by the club. It is hoped to get one or two rinks from Calgary, one from Strathcona, where there are a number of old curriers and rinks from Inverness, Lacrosse and Poplar lake.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of the Sturgeon trail, about eight miles north of town, left for Montreal on Jan. 4th, to get treatment for Mr. McDonald's eyesight, which was failing. They reached Montreal safely and Mr. McDonald went to the hospital. A letter from Mrs. McDonald states that she was taken ill of bronchitis on the following morning. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have five children, the eldest about thirteen years, who remain on the farm during the absence of their parents.

—Napoleon Hebert, of Beaumont, who was brought in to the general hospital on Tuesday last, suffering from severe injuries to his head and face, died at the hospital this morning at 2 o'clock. The injured man never recovered consciousness and so the exact cause of the accident will never be known. Hebert, who is a farmer, was found by his son, lying in his stable where he had gone to water his horses. It is believed that the injuries were sustained through kicks from one of the horses. ## FALL WHEAT SEED.

The following circular has been issued by Mr. Toole, C. P. R. land agent at Calgary:

As this variety of wheat has been grown very successfully in Southern Alberta for some years and experiments during the past few seasons have proved almost conclusively that the same satisfactory results could be obtained in the central and northern portions of this district, the company have decided to import, for the benefit of the farmers holding lands north of township seventeen, a limited quantity of the most suitable variety of fall wheat seed, and sell it at a low price, less all freight charges.

The seed will be put up in bags containing three bushels each.

Farmers desiring to take advantage of this offer should send in their applications as early as possible, stating lands held by them, acreage they expect to crop this season, number of bushels of seed required and the most convenient station to take delivery of the wheat.

All applications must be in this office before the 1st April next.

WILLIAM TOOLE,
District Land Agent.

THE WAR.

Following is the text of the despatch from Kimberley, Pretoria, Jan. 9.—On the night of Jan. 7, the Boers made simultaneous and determined attacks on all of our posts at Belfast, Wonderfontein, Noutedgedich and Wildfontein. An intense fog prevailed, and taking advantage of the cover it afforded, the Boers were able to creep up close to our position. Heavy fire continued until 3.40 a. m. when the Boers were driven off. One officer was killed and three were wounded, while twenty men were killed and fifty-nine wounded. The loss of the Boers was heavy, twenty-four being counted as a convey, taking supplies to Gordonsburg, north of Krugersburg, was attacked by the Boers yesterday. Tuesday the Boers were driven off, leaving eleven dead on the field. Our casualties were four slightly wounded.

Cape Town, Jan. 10.—Refugees are approaching the military authorities to obtain permission to form a corps for the protection of Johannesburg and the mines only, as they wish to be on the Rand to assist in defence of their own property. The chamber of mines adopted a similar attitude.

On the Ploegersburg road the Boers are occupying Coling and Sutherland. They consist of two columns, one advancing in the direction of Chawillan and the other towards Worcester or in this direction. All passes in front of Worcester have been occupied by the Boers, which are gathering at strategic points. The British are greatly disapproving of the raid, many even sending horses to the British camp.

Durban, Natal, Jan. 10.—Seventy foreigners have arrived here from Johannesburg. A small party of Steinkamp's horse, while making a night march, rushed the town of Bremersburg in the morning and captured the guard and a number of cows and wagons. The Boers are awaiting the arrival of a commando in order to be able to commandeer supplies.

Pretoria, Jan. 10.—In a recent fight between General Bullington's command and a Boer force near Zandfontein, the Imperial troops suffered severely. Having learned nothing by previous experiences, they advanced in close formation up a hill that had previously been scouted by the Boers, who reported that they found no signs of the Boers. However, the Boers were lying in wait. They allowed the Imperial troops to advance without notice, reserving their fire until the Imperial troops were within fifty yards of them. When the Imperial troops had ridden into another ambush, they dismounted and kept up a hot fire. Seeing that the men were being heavily, the colonel ordered them to retire. Subsequently they again advanced in extended order and drove the Boers from their position and captured a good part of their convey. The commando rode to the front of his men and stimulated them by his extreme bravery. The leading squadron sustained several casualties.

London, Jan. 10.—A despatch from Cape Town says it is reported that four Boers are in the hands of the Boers, which is less than 100 miles from Cape Town.

Cape Town, Jan. 10.—Col. Kekewich, who commanded the Kimberley garrison during the siege of that place, has been appointed to the command of the infantry brigade in Lord Roberts's column, vice Brigadier General Douglas, who has been invalided home.

Cape Town, Jan. 11.—A force of Cape police and British farmers, forming the volunteer guard at Barkley West and Dordrecht districts, has had an engagement with about 100 invaders, near Kraaibosch junction on the border of Barkley West and Wodehouse districts. The engagement lasted six hours. Two Boers were wounded, 20 Boer horses were killed and six wounded. Two British horses were wounded. The Dutch in Barkley West and Wodehouse districts are aiding the imperial authorities in every way. The invaders were repulsed with some loss. They probably attempt to cross the river again.

DeWet was last reported in the neighborhood of Bloemfontein. All towns in Orange County on the main line are strongly held by the British and the Boers show no disposition to approach them.

The British warship Sybil, has anchored in Louisa Bay, and with a force of blue jackets and a number of guns. This force has constructed entrenchments on the shore.

Herzog's main body, several hundred strong, with two guns, has crossed the Orange mountains and is now probably in the neighborhood of the Standards, 50 miles west of Clan William. Herzog's intention is to move toward the neighborhood of the Standards, 50 miles west of Clan William. Herzog's intention is to move toward the neighborhood of the Standards, 50 miles west of Clan William.

According to reliable reports another party of 500 Boers has reconquered Dordrecht, 70 miles south of California. The authorities are long all in their power to meet the situation. Refugees from Calvinia and Clan William are flocking to Ploegersburg post. They state that many poor whites are certain to join, as are also many bitter bandmen in the neighborhood of Clan William and Malmberg, who declare that they intend to join the invaders.

London, Jan. 11.—Five thousand Boers supposed to be trekking west from Nyburg, says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, are now making their way into the heart of Cape Colony. The intention is that they have captured several small garriens on the way.

This morning's despatches report that a small party of Boers carried off cattle, close to the east fort of Pretoria. Nine hundred Boers under Commandant Kretzinger are fifteen miles from Richmond. Rumors are spreading of a Boer victory, that the rebels have joined the Boers in the Calvinia district.

The military commissioner of police at Johannesburg has warned the public to beware of the dangerous dynamite mines laid in the Rand to protect the mines, as the authorities cannot hold themselves responsible for injuries resulting therefrom.

Cape Town, Jan. 10.—Entrenchments are being constructed across the Cape flats from False Bay to Table Bay.

Cape Town, Jan. 10.—There is a tremendous excitement here in fear of an attack by Boers, several commandos of whom are reported in full advance within less than one hundred miles.

Cape Town, Jan. 10.—The mounted infantry from Cape Town occupied Pakenham's Kloof without opposition before the Boer invaders could reach that place. The cyclist corps has arrived at Clan William. No Boers were seen in either of these districts. The Boers are guarded by blue-jackets and marines. Convalescent soldiers are taking their turn in guarding Boer prisoners on shipboard.

Pretoria, Jan. 11.—The Boers are making some daring raids in their attempts to seize cattle near the British outposts along the eastern line. General Bullington and Gordon are having skirmishes daily with the Boers south of the Magaliesberg. There, it is believed, number about 2,500. Gen. Bullington is reported to be organizing a series of attacks in the east, of which those at Belfast and other places on Monday night and Tuesday morning were the beginning.

DIED—JOSEPHBURG.

One of our oldest and best known settlers passed away on Friday, the 11th instant, in the person of Geo. Becker, Sr. The deceased was 71 years of age. He came here 10 years ago from Josephsburg, Galicia. He was one of the first German settlers in the district. The funeral took place on Sunday last to the Josephsburg cemetery, and was the largest ever seen since the first of the war. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Fetter, of the other word. The funeral also spoke a few words in English to the English-speaking settlers present. Among the mourners were the wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the deceased.

WINTER FEEDING OF HOGS.

The winter housing of hogs is not an easy matter to deal with, writes Mr. J. L. Riley. The main difficulty seems to be in getting them to take enough exercise. When one has but few hogs he can master this part of the difficulty very well, but when the number is large and comprises all ages, sexes and breeds, the question becomes complex. My buildings are not well suited to provide exercise and in this winter I am compelled to confine animals more closely than desirable. I have been able to obtain very satisfactory growth, but have not yet convinced myself that I am producing bacon of the best quality. A piggy must be dry and warm. I have had satisfaction from wooden buildings and a prefer wood to anything else for the walls of the building. I have some concrete floors with plank sleeping places which are giving fair satisfaction, but my farrowing pens are floored with boards.

For pigs just after weaning, I find nothing better than wheat middlings and milk. Sometimes I cannot get enough skim milk and have to divide the limited supply among several pigs. I have used a mixture of ground old cake and ground flaxseed in small quantities, steeped with the middlings, but though they are better than nothing, they do not equal milk. Of the two the ground flaxseed is perhaps the better, but it should not constitute more than about 5 per cent of the total food. By the time pigs are about three months old a little more grain is sometimes added. I like barley for this purpose and often add a few oats ground as fine as possible. Soon after then a few roots are added to the mixture. I feed roots raw and find them very palatable. I have used green corn cobs, but these are eaten a little more readily. I prefer sugar beets, but turnips and mangels are also good. When potatoes are fed they should always be cooked. Raw roots are subject to rot and when fed raw, after which the whole mass is moistened.

Rules for the care and feeding of dairy cows.

1. Cows must have comfort or they cannot do well. Give them a good bed and a comfortable stall with as much liberty as is consistent with security cleanliness and convenience.
2. Have the arrangement of the stalls, gutters and fastenings such that the cows can be kept clean. Keep the stable clean.
3. Have the stable ventilated in such a way as to provide pure air for cows without making it too cold.
4. Always be kind to cows, then they will be glad to see when you come around. Speak gently to them and never in angry tones.
5. Give cows a chance to exercise in the open air when weather is comfortable.
6. Milk regularly at the same time each day, dividing the day equally between milking cows in the same order and by the same milkers, if possible. Do this quickly, but gently. Get all the milk each time, but do not keep on stripping after they have got it.
7. Feed cows all they will eat of the proper kinds of food. The concentrates should be fed in such a way as to be palatable, and in proportion to the amount of milk each cow can be made to give. But in no case should the concentrates constitute more than half, in weight, of the dry matter of the daily ration. A safer rule is to say one-third. Give only what they will eat up at once. Have some feed left over in the mangers or feed boxes for them to breathe on and get fresh.
8. Feed a variety of foods. They will eat more and digest more because of it. Feed nothing but sweet water-melon rinds.
9. Feed at the same time each day. Then cows will not be worrying about their feed.
10. Feed as nearly as practical a balanced ration. But all cows should not be fed alike; those inclined to lay should be fed less of the carbohydrates, such as corn, and those inclined to turn all their feed into milk should be fed more of such feed.
11. In summer cows should have good pasture, or other green food or hay. In winter a part of the daily ration should be silage or roots to enable them to do their best.
12. Feed both concentrate and concentrated food both morning and evening at noon if cows have been accustomed to it. If cows have not been accustomed to it, they may, perhaps do as well without the noon feed by giving more at the other feed.
13. Cows should be watered at least a day when on dry feed, and the water should be pure and wholesome and at a temperature that best suits them, which is, at least twenty or thirty degrees warmer than the water.
14. Cows should have at all times all the salt they require in their feed, which is from one to two ounces each daily.
15. If the above rules are followed any cow that is worth keeping will pay well for her care and feed. Any cow that does not so pay should be disposed of.
